Out of Stock Notice

This item is not in stock and is not expected to be in stock soon. However one of the reasons it's not in stock is because we didn't get enough initial orders to put in an order with the supplier.

If a member is interested in an item, there is an option to "pre-order" the item. During check out - choose the option that say pre-order payment. This will hold your order but not charge you the amount (will be arranged later) but will register your interest in the order in the queue. If we get enough pre-orders, we may consider ordering the product in.

You'll be contacted to confirm your wishlist order before we proceed, at which time you can turn it into an order.
